The Naco Trouble.

An Ore reporter went down to Naco last evening to view the situation there, and to the appearances, to one who is not posted, everything looked calm and peaceful, but such was not the case. There were more armed cowboys in Naco and vicinity yesterday than at any time since Sunday, a number having come from the Sulphur Spring valley. Acts nor Rhodes had neither one had their trial up to 5:30 last evening, when our reporter left, but later Rhodes was given a hearing and dismissed.

When asked by our reporter as to the treatment received while confined in a Mexican jail, Rhodes replied, "We could not have been treated better by any one." Some of the corridos have been sent back, but most of them are still there, a guard of six or eight are watching the jail in which Marts is confined.

The cowboys are still determined that Marts shall not be removed to Arispe to be given a hearing, but that it should be held in Naco. Col. Fenocchio has been in consultation with American officials and prominent citizens since his arrival yesterday, and it is now thought that the matter will be settled without further trouble. The prefect, or sheriff, of the Arispe district arrived in Naco this morning, as did also a company of soldiers of the Ninth cavalry from Ft. Huachuca.

Col. Fenocchio and others expect to leave this evening for Naco to confer with the officials there regarding the matter, and an early settlement may be looked for.
